State FFA Convention

By Mackenzie Lager

This year the Rock Port FFA Chapter sent nineteen members to State FFA in Columbia, Mo., April 18-20. This is the largest group the Rock Port FFA has sent in many years.

Teams began preparing for contest early in the semester, often at 7:30 a.m. due to students' busy schedules and diverse interests.

The chapter sent a Conducts of Chapter meeting team; this team placed first in Area Contest, beating all four teams. They then moved on and placed first in districts, beating all six teams. At state they unfortunately did not make it out of prelims. This team included Lauren Kelly, RyAnne Herron, Mackenzie Lager, Harlee Pritt, Cayden Criger, Joey Herron, Johnny Davis and two alternates, Ethan Lucas and Trey Peshek.

The chapter also sent Kelcie Gaines in job interview; she placed first in Area then moved on to place second in districts, sending her to state. Kelcie did not make it out of prelims in her contest.

The chapter also sent a parliamentary procedures team. This team placed first in Area sending them to districts. To qualify for state, they placed second in districts. This team included President Fischer Tharp, Ben Lucas, Rebekah Lucas, Drew Weber, Ashleigh

King and Cody Davis. They did not make it out of the preliminary round.

The chapter also sent an agronomy team. They placed eleventh in districts, advancing them to state. This team did not place in the top ten at state. The agronomy team included Ally Demott, Ben Lucas, Riley Vogler and Ayden Wilroy.

Each FFA members who advanced to state competition was required to attend two leadership conferences. All of the students attended the opening ceremony and the opening session of the State FFA Convention. Ross Hastert sponsors the Rock Port FFA.
